++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:

Risk storms force winds initially for Shetland. Frequent showers.

Today:

Gale to severe gale west to southwest winds, perhaps touching storm force across Shetland at first, before gradually easing from the south from late morning. Frequent showers through the day, heavy at times bringing the risk of hail and thunder. Maximum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Tonight:

Scattered showers through the evening, which merge to longer periods of rain towards dawn, as the strong westerly winds back southwest and occasionally touch gale force. Minimum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Tuesday:

Overcast with strong to gale southwest winds and periods of occasionally heavy rain. Winds easing a little through the afternoon, with rain clearing to showers across Shetland before evening. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:

Some patchy rain at times Thursday, but otherwise dry with brighter spells and occasionally strong west to southwest winds.
